the benefit.

Camille Saint-Saens, the noted Franch composer, and Mr. Hovelaque were guests of honor, occupying a box with Mr. and Mrs. Otto H. Kahn. After the second act Mr. Saint-Saens went behind the scenes and shook hands with Miss Farrar and other members of the company.

Those in charge of the benefit had arranged to have the "Marseillaise" sung but an intimation from the management that it would not be strictly neutral changed the plans and "The Star Spangled Banner" was substituted.

About $9,000 was realized, which will be added to a fund established in Paris to help the sewing girls. to help the sewing girls.
